In re Robert Andres, Esq.	}
	} DOCKET NOS. 2002.043 & 2003.031
	}
	}

	}

In the above-entitled cause, the Clerk will enter:

Robert Andres is a lawyer licensed to practice law in the State of Vermont. Disciplinary Counsel has presented the Court with evidence that Attorney Andres was convicted of simple assault. The Court finds that the behavior underlying the conviction reflects adversely on Attorney Andres' fitness to practice law. The Court also finds that the evidence sufficiently establishes that the respondent has violated Rule 8.4(h) of the Vermont Rules of Professional Conduct and presently poses a substantial threat of harm to the public.

Having examined the evidence transmitted by Disciplinary Counsel, the Court finds that the respondent' s license to practice law should be suspended on an interim basis. Therefore, pursuant to Rules 17(D)(1) and 18(B) of Administrative Order 9, the Court orders

1. That the respondent' s license to practice law is immediately suspended on an interim basis pending the final disposition of the disciplinary proceedings that are pending against him.
2. That the respondent shall comply with all of the provisions of Rule 23 of Administrative Order 9.
3. That, except to the extent necessary to provide a client with a refund, the respondent shall not transfer or cause to be transferred, withdraw or cause to be withdrawn, or take any other action that affects client funds in the trust, escrow and bank accounts maintained by the respondent.
4. That the respondent shall provide Disciplinary Counsel with names and addresses of all current clients no later than September 13, 2002.
