

WIRELESS INTERNET ACCESS AGREEMENT

IN THE INTEREST OF PROTECTING CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS, JURORS ARE EXPRESSLY PROHIBITED FROM ACCESSING THE INTERNET, THROUGH THIS OR ANY OTHER SERVICE DURING THE COURSE OF THEIR JURY SERVICE—BEFORE AND AFTER SELECTION FOR JURY DUTY.

By using the wireless internet access provided by the Vermont Judiciary (hereinafter referred to as the “Judiciary”), you (hereinafter referred to as the “User”) agree to the terms and conditions contained within both this Agreement and Supreme Court Administrative Directive No. 28, “Electronic Devices in a Courthouse”.

The User desires to engage the facilities of the Judiciary to obtain wireless internet access through the User’s own internet or wireless service provider and the User’s own WiFi enabled devices. The Judiciary receives no compensation or remuneration, valuable or otherwise, for providing this access. The User understands and expressly agrees that this service is provided as a courtesy to the public actively doing business on or in the premises of the Judiciary. The User understands and expressly agrees that this service is provided as a revocable and non-actionable privilege and bestows no rights or expectations whatsoever upon the User.

The User understands and expressly agrees the failure to abide by this Agreement may result in the suspension or revocation of the User’s privileges at the Provider’s sole discretion.

INSTRUCTIONS

The wireless internet access service is configured to allow your computer to automatically detect and use the Internet. Not all courts have wireless internet access available. The wireless internet access points that are available are labeled "Court-WiFi" at most judicial facilities. The exceptions are as followed:

Costello Courthouse in Burlington, VT where "Court-WiFi-1FL" and "Court-WiFi-2FL" are designated by the floor location of the equipment.

Orleans Criminal Courthouse in Newport, VT is designated as "Courts2-WiFi" due to the close proximity of the Orleans Civil/Family Courthouse which is designated as "Court-WiFi".

When connecting to a wireless internet access point, you will be asked for a password, called a WPA key. When prompted for this information, type the alpha-numeric code (case sensitive) listed in the box below. No spaces or dashes are necessary.

By entering the WPA key or connecting to this service you are accepting the terms and conditions of this document.
