

CONFIDENTIAL

SUPERIOR COURT OF VERMONT Litigant's Address for Notification

Vermont Court Rules of Civil Procedure state that parties filing documents in stalking and sexual assault cases must give the Court an address and telephone number. The address and telephone number you give are for the Court to contact you about your case. Please complete the information below:

County: _____

Case Number: _____

Name: _____

For the Court to contact me about my case, I can be reached at:

Name: _____

Street Address: _____

Mailing Address (if different than street address): _____

City, State Zip: _____

Home/Cell Phone: _____ Work Phone: _____

Email: _____

The address & phone number(s) you have given in this case cannot be given to any person without your permission.

Do you consent to the release of this information?

☐ Yes

☐ No

Dated

Signature

Important information: The rule that requires the court to keep your address and telephone number confidential applies ONLY to stalking and sexual assault cases. If you have other cases in court, and you want the court to keep your address and telephone number confidential in those cases, you must file a written request in each. Your request will be given to the judge. It is up to the judge to decide.